A significant proportion of the university's demand for ICT equipment and products, including parts and accessories is also fulfilled by means of using national and regional agreements made available by the UEDC. The university has also initiated a number of other measures to

b. Controls are in place within the procedures and the policy which ensure that the tendering process for new suppliers and contractors and the management of the performance of, and relationship with, suppliers and contractors includes the provision and subsequent monitoring of compliance with the university's policies, including policies against slavery and human trafficking. Our supplier appraisal questionnaire has also been updated to include two declarations developed by Crown Commercial Services relating to the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

c. This is further supported by the university's terms and conditions of contract, which include provisions whereby contracts can be terminated should a contractor breach such policies
